Welcome to Cruden Farm, the property Keith Murdoch purchase in 1928 as a wedding gift for his young wife Elizabeth. She lived here for many decades until her death in 2012. For over 40 of those years. Dame Elizabeth, along with gardener Michael Morrison, developed the 20-acre garden and farm that you see today. Dame Elizabeth left Cruden Farm as a place for public recreation because she always loved sharing the property with family, friends, and visitors. Cruden Farm is now operated by a charitable trust.

This event has been organised by the Peugeot Car Club of Victoria Incorporated on behalf of the French Car Clubs of Victoria:

Entry: Display vehicles arriving at the McClelland Drive gate will be charged $10.00 each. This includes one Cruden Farm Garden entry wrist band pass for the driver. Additional Cruden Farm Garden passes can be purchase for $10.00 at the gate or from the Peugeot marquee where you can purchase a wrist band. Passengers just visiting the car festival, not wanting to view the Cruden Farm gardens do not have to purchase a pass.
